There's a big old elephant in the room

"Every wonder why Christians churches worship on Sunday?"

Every wonder why Christians churches worship on Sunday? Well I've wondered, and thought someday to research the matter. Recently someday finally arrived, "My head hurts", thought I'd Google a few things and flash I'll have my answer. To my be wonderment, I discovered, Solomon's warning about the making of books and of much study in fact is very true. (Eccl. 12:12) However, my efforts were not altogether fruitless; I did come to some findings that I want to share with you.

I found that most Christian teachers believe Jesus rose on the first day of the week, therefore, Sunday should be observed as a memorial of his resurrection and a day of breaking of bread and communion. I also discovered who started the practice of Sunday worship. This was the one thing that almost everyone agreed on it was, THE EARLY CHRISTIANS. Of course no one of any reputation could say exactly when these EARLY CHRISTIANS began worshipping on Sunday. What became increasingly clear is that Sunday was not the worship day of the Bible but a practice started by THE EARLY CHRISTIANS.

My historical investigation yielded no other authoritative claim or command for Sunday worship. Jesus did not institute teach or observe it nor was there an apostolic directive to switch from Sabbath (Saturday), worship to Sunday. I did encounter some who held the position of a biblical directive for Sunday worship; however, they were all based on mere supposition. These EARLY CHRISTIANS at some point began to call Sunday the Lords Day; it puzzles me how they arrived at this since Jesus said he was Lord of the Sabbath. (Matt. 12:8) Jesus also taught that the Sabbath was made for man. (Mark 2:27) The EARLY CHISTIANS must have concluded they didn't need it! There you have it Christian churches worship on Sunday because the EARLY CHRISTIANS worshiped on Sunday! Wake up church! There's a big old "elephant in the room"! The bible does not teach a Sunday Sabbath! Every wonder why God said "remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy"? Ever wonder why the Christians of today teach that the law was abolished yet they teach and believe all the Ten Commandments except the one God said to remember? I know its "them" EARLY CHRISTIANS!
