What Did Jesus Do

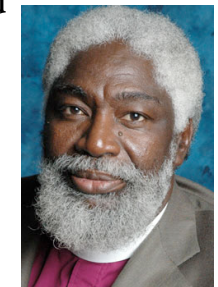

Jesus never ate pork, shrimp, lobster, or cat fish!

I often wonder why Christian Churches are so unlike Christ. After all he is the “author and finisher of our faith (Heb. 12:2 KJV). One would be lead to think that any group holds dear the practices and customs of its founder. However, when one takes a critical look at the Christian Church of today the irony of it all is that most do not. As a matter of fact most Christian Churches mock the customs and practices of Christ and call them unnecessary and legalistic. Do you not find it odd that Christians worship on a different day then Jesus? Jesus regular worship day was Saturday and Christian Churhes worship on Sunday. One would think the question of WHAT DID JESUS DO would be a very important one. Did you know Jesus never celebrated a Christmas, Easter, or Thanksgiving Day? But rather yet he celebrated the holydays of the bible, Passover, Pentecost and Tabernacles. How about this one! Jesus never ate pork, shrimp, lobster, or cat fish! So the Christian Church wants you to believe that Jesus died a brutal death on the cross so we could do all the things that HIS FATHER deemed UN-HOLY. Doesn't this pattern look familiar to you?

Doesn't this sound like the REBELLIOUS CHILD who is bound and determined to raise all his or her children the exact opposite of how they were raised? I'm still wondering why Christian Churches are so unlike Christ AREN'T YOU?
